hosted by Dr. Angle

MARCH 1, 2022
10:00-11:00

“Building, supporting and cultivating inclusive campus environments takes the collective work of everyone. It takes strong relationships, collaborations and trust. That is the work that I find most exciting and look most forward to implementing at the University of Florida. I am passionate about building a campus where the intrinsic work of all individuals is respected and celebrated, and I look forward to serving and supporting the campus as we work together to become a national model for inclusive excellence.”
